

Other Programs

Beginning Farmer Program. The Colorado Agricultural Development Authority (CADA) provides tax-exempt bonds for low-interest financing of land or equipment purchases. Individuals must qualify as beginning farmers to participate in this program. A beginning farmer is defined as a person who does not own more than 30% of the median county farm size.

Grants. We offer grant programs to help Colorado's agriculture industry identify renewable energy opportunities, promote products, conduct feasibility studies, and to take advantage of local, regional, national and international market opportunities.

Fruit and Vegetable Inspection. This program works in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA). This service provides independent, third party certification of a commodity's quality at anytime within the marketing chain.

This section also manages the Good Agricultural Practices (GAP) and Good Handling Practices (GHP) Audit Verification Programs.

Our Mission

Our mission is to increase marketing and processing opportunities for Colorado's agricultural industry.

We offer assistance in the areas of promotion, research, exporting, business start-up and expansion. Our staff is available to meet with you on an individual basis to help you develop or enhance your marketing program.

Our services are available to any company that grows, raises or processes a food or agricultural product in Colorado.

The cornerstone of the Markets Division is the Colorado Food and Agricultural Directory. The Division maintains this online searchable directory of agricultural producers and processors in Colorado. To look for Colorado products or to add your company to the directory, visit www.coloradoagriculture.com.

We look forward to working with you to market your Colorado products. If you have any suggestions on how we may expand or improve our programs, please contact us!

International Marketing

▶ In a survey of Colorado food companies, 37% export now, and another 34% want to begin exporting.

International Marketing Specialists are available to help you develop export markets for your products around the world. Major agricultural export markets for Colorado include Mexico, Japan, Canada, Europe and Korea. Colorado companies are successfully exporting their products in many markets around the world. Call to learn how we can assist in identifying and developing your global sales.

Export Assistance. The Markets Division created the Exporter Assistance website at www.coloradoagriculture.com/exporter to provide answers and additional links to help you accomplish your goals. We will assist in reviewing your export potential and determining appropriate international markets.

We will guide you through the process and provide the training and information needed to make the export market an important component of your sales. Funding is available to help you develop your international markets.
