Colorado Accommodations Guide.

DVD GUIDE

"It was the strangest, quaintest, funniest frontier town that our traveled eyes had ever stared at and been astonished with."

Mark Twain after a visit to a certain Colorado town in 1862.

COLORADO ACCOMMODATIONS GUIDE

Colorado offers a wide variety of accommodations amidst the natural splendor of the majestic Rockies and rolling plains. Here at the Top of the Nation are all the comforts of home, plus magnificent scenery and varied outdoor recreation.

Listed here according to the nine geographic regions, as described in the Colorado Adventure Guide, are more than 500 of Colorado's finest accommodations. In every area of the Centennial State, you are sure to find those facilities which fit your vacation lodging needs perfectly.

We have compiled information submitted by the individual lodging facilities into a uniform grid chart, using the following codes.

AP	American Plan All meals included
MAP	Modified American Plan Two meals (usually breakfast and dinner)
SW	Swimming Pool
HR	Horseback Riding
G	Golf
T	Tennis
X	Yes
+	Some
*	Nearby

CREDIT CARDS

AE	American Express
CB	Carte Blanche
DI	Diners International
MC	Master Charge
VI	VISA

For additional information and reservations, please contact the facility directly. While every effort was made for complete accuracy in compiling the Accommodations Guide, the State of Colorado cannot assume responsibility for price changes and listing errors.

AUTUMN COLORS

The fall color season, a most spectacular time to visit and see Colorado, begins in mid-September and runs through the month of October. The largest aspen groves generally are found between elevations of 8,000 to 10,000 feet. Colors start at the higher elevations and spread their way down as the season progresses. A bright golden yellow is the predominant color with varying shades of brilliant reds, browns, and oranges interspersed with the green of the slower changing leaves and the surrounding conifers.

To help you plan a trip to Colorado's high country during this most colorful of the seasons, we are listing some of the more dramatically colorful areas along with suggested routings.

- US 550 "Million Dollar Highway" between Durango and Ouray
- US 160 "Navajo Trail" between Pagosa Springs and Cortez
- Lizard Head Pass, SH 145 between Dolores and Telluride
- Steamboat Springs, Elk River Country, north, and Buffalo Pass, east
- Independence Pass, SH 82 between Twin Lakes and Aspen
- Maroon Bells area above Aspen
- Cottonwood Pass, SH 306 between Buena Vista and Taylor Park
- Grand Mesa, SH 65 east of Grand Junction and north of Delta
- SH 67 between Divide and Cripple Creek
- Platoro Reservoir, south of Del Norte and west of Conejos
- SH 135 between Crested Butte and Gunnison
- Slumgullion Pass Country, SH 149 between Lake City, Creede, and South Fork
- Boreas Pass between Como and Breckenridge
- Flat Tops Country between Buford and New Castle
- Cochetopa Pass between Saguache and Gunnison
- Trail Ridge Road through Rocky Mountain National Park (US 34)
- Guanella Pass between Georgetown and Grant
- Monarch Pass, US 50 Salida to Gunnison
- Cucharas Pass, SH 12 Trinidad to Walsenburg

ONE-DAY "CIRCLE TRIPS" FROM THE DENVER AREA

Almost anywhere you go in the mountains, you'll find beautiful aspen displays. But here are two suggestions for one day "circle trips" near the Denver Area:

- Leave Denver on US 40 for Bergen Park, from there follow SH 74 and SH 103 to Echo Lake. Then follow Chicago creek to Idaho Springs, and from there return to Denver.
- US 6 from Denver to the junction at Central City-Blackhawk turnoff. Follow Sh 119 from Blackhawk to Nederland; from there, take SH 72 to Ward and Allenspark. From Allenspark, you may return to Nederland or continue on to Estes Park and return to Denver from there.
